The school committee has been promising for weeks that when they closed a school, most buildings in town would be affected.

That prediction came true Tuesday night, though a day-old grapevine had left few surprises.

The committee approved the new position of fulltime building program coordinator, and assigned East Jr. High Principal Richard McGrail to the task, effective July 1.

That caused a whole chain of other administrative moves, as Supt. Kenneth R. Seifert had announced to the staff at a meeting Monday afternoon.

West Elementary Principal Eugene Frulla will become principal of East Jr. High; Jack Coyle will move from Bancroft to West Elementary; and Lois Haslam, principal of the soon-to-be-closed Doherty School, will take over at Bancroft.

Jack Woodward at South and Joseph Normandy at Sanborn will trade places, while three will stay put: Philip Wormwood at Andover High, William Hart at West Jr. High and Isabel Dobbie at Shawsheen.

Seifert also announced that in order for McGrail to move parttime into coordinating duties now, the other elementary principals will take on system-wide "resource" responsibilities in various areas of expertise.

Dobbie will concentrate on budget and transportation; Coyle on home-school communications; Normandy on buildings and grounds; Woodward on elementary school study skills and Haslam on growth and development.

Seifert said he welcomed the chance to use the management team concept in the schools.

"I'm not expecting that every person in town is whooping it up for joy over the transfers," he said, but said he was "tremendously proud" of administrative response and noted the advantage of "renewal."

"When closing schools," he said, "there's a tendency to just sit and watch the clock tick."

"Renewal," he said, "is very, very important."

He said some of the administrators have been in their buildings for nine or 10 years and this was an opportunity for "progress."

"From my standpoint," he said, "this is clearly in the best interest of the Andover School System."

He said some staffers may now seek transfers as well. "Some faculty have spent 15 years in one building and are looking for a change of scene," he said, "and it's our responsibility as administrators to provide that for them."

But because Andover for the past few years has been striving to come up with "commonality" among the schools, he said that Andover elementary pupils will not lose one minute of instruction come fall.

"The teacher knows where the student's at and the student knows where he's at." He said a pupil can walk into a new

When the Winter Olympics open in Lake Placid Tuesday, three Andover residents will be front and center in the "official" ranks. Dick Chapell of School Street, at left, will be at the upper third of the men's race events. While Ed Hostetter of Argilla Road, at right, will be at the finish area. Ted Sutton, a lieutenant in the Andover Fire Department, left for Placid earlier in the week. He's assistant to the chief of race in the women's events.

To Tour Goldsmith Woodlands

On Sunday, Feb. 10, the Andover Committee of the Appalachian Mountain Club is sponsoring a ski touring or hiking at the Bessie Goldsmith Woodlands.

The terrain is excellent for beginning and intermediate skiers and lends itself to family skiing and hiking for all ages. Snow shoes are most certainly welcome. If there isn't any snow all participants will enjoy the opportunity to hike. Featured places on the agenda are the remnants of Bessie Goldsmith's house and the hole that was once Ole Zac's cellar.

Family groups and non-family groups are to meet at 1:30 p.m. at the junction of Rte. 28 and Gould Road, in Andover. This is just north of the junction of Rtes. 28 and 125. Leaders for this event are David Cleary, Dick Hornidge and Marta Hornidge.

Trees Save Energy

Deciduous trees are best for year-round energy savings. Planted on the west and south sides of the house, they provide good shade during the summer and then shed their leaves to allow the winter sun to warm the roof and walls.

During the 1978 fiscal year, almost 240,000 youths, the majority from economically disadvantaged families, participated in five youth programs funded by the U.S. Department of Labor, according to the department's annual report.

To Consider Revised Ed Specs

The school committee will meet in joint session with the school building committee tonight, to discuss revised educational specifications for the junior high building project.

The specs have been phased down to a 650-pupil junior high. The first set of ed specs two years ago were aimed at a school of 800.

The meeting is open to the public and will begin at 7:30 in Town Hall.

Town Meeting Moved To Case Cage

The annual town meeting will again be held at the Case Memorial Cage, Phillips Academy.

Selectmen made the decision Monday night, officially setting the site and dates for the meeting as April 14, and continuing nightly until the business is completed.

The decision Monday night, officially setting the site and dates for the meeting as April 14, and continuing nightly until the business is completed.

The decision was based on interest in school issues, such as the bonding for the school construction project. The cage can accommodate many more people than either Memorial Auditorium, or the high school gymnasium, the latter location requiring rental of public address equipment.

The meeting was held at the cage last year due to the ceiling at Memorial Auditorium having fallen. The cage was used over a decade ago when over 2,000 residents showed up for a meeting to rezone land in West Andover for the new Raytheon plant.

To Recognize Employees For Service

Municipal employees will be recognized by selectmen for significant service to the town as a regular part of future agendas.

Town Manager Jared S. A. Clark suggested the matter to the board Monday night, noting that from time to time, employees from various departments perform significant services which should be recognized.

Selectmen agreed, indicating that such recognition will be part of the agenda in the future, as well as possibly having those cited in attendance at meetings when possible.

Jurors Drawn For Duty

Selectmen drew the names of ten residents for service as jurors in Essex County: Those drawn include Madeline M. Peront, 440 Lowell St.; Edgar W. Care, 235 Haggetts Pond Road; Leander G. Yeaton, III, 1 Arcadia Road; John G. Gahan, A-2 Colonial Drive; Gail

S. Rembisz, 4 Wintergreen Circle; Catherine F. Jorgenson, 7 Crescent Drive; Kenneth C. Gray, 8 Deerberry Lane; Henry S. Anthony, 7 Westwind Road; Daniel A. Spezzaferox, C-1 Colonial Drive and Dorothy M. Oiercy, 273 North Main St.

Bloodmobile Visit Tuesday

The Andover Jaycees will conduct a bloodmobile next Tuesday from 4 p.m. to 9 p.m. at the East Junior High cafeteria.

This is the first annual bloodmobile to be conducted by the local organization who are hopeful of public participation. Assisting in the bloodmobile visit are Steve Daly, Pat Sullivan, Tom Hajj, Bob McCusker, Ed Madden, Bill Haskell and Joan McGilvray.

Piano Recital Sunday

"It is easier to mend 3 neglect than to quicken
love." St. Jerome

On Sunday, at 3 p.m. in the Addison Gallery, the Music Department of Phillips Academy will present a piano recital by Dragana Bajalovic.

Born in Yugoslavia, Bajalovic was admitted at the age of 16 to the Music Academy in Belgrade to study piano. She gave recitals on national radio and television and appeared as soloist with the Belgrade Philharmonic Orchestra.

In this country, she attended Oberlin and is currently on the faculty of Lowell University and the New England Conservatory, where she studied with Jacob Maxin and received her Master's degree in 1973. She has given recitals at Emmanuel Church, the Gardner Museum, Oberlin, Harvard, the New England Conservatory, and Jordan Hall. This will be her second appearance at the Addison Gallery. Bajalovic is a candidate for the Artist Diploma at the New England Conservatory.

The program for Sunday includes works by Beethoven, Weber, Busoni, Ravel and Chopin.

Admission is free and the public is cordially invited to attend.

Doherty Parents Ask Consideration

A group of "concerned Doherty parents" Tuesday night handed the school committee a list of proposals that they feel will preserve the Doherty "humanistic approach" to education and insure that they are given "every consideration in placing our children for the coming year."

A letter read to the committee by Michael Giammuso of Summer Street, said the parents were "ready to discuss with you any aspect of our philosophy and how it is implemented at Doherty. We want to work on these proposals with you."

They said the committee's "assurances and recognition now will do much to alleviate our frustrations and to insure our support of your goals. We would expect a response from you on these proposals by the next school committee meeting."

The proposals include: 1) A K-6 developmental school at Bancroft, "as an alternative to conventional education in Andover, initially offered to Doherty and Bancroft students, and then to other interested people."

2) Movement of the Doherty developmental primary unit (K through 3) "intact including faculty," to Bancroft in September, giving first choice to Doherty pupils now in the unit, along with Bancroft pupils.

3) An administrator "sympathetic to and comfortable with this approach to education based on child growth and development."

4) Applied activity learning in upper grades and genuine, working lab approaches to math, humanities and language "as now exist at Doherty, wherever our children are placed."

"Pinocchio"

One of the most popular of children's plays is soon to appear on stage at New England Life hall. "Pinocchio", a classic by Carlo Collodi, will open on February 16, with other performances during school vacation week Feb. 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, and March 1 and 8. Performance time 2 p.m.

"Pinocchio" is the timeless story of a wooden puppet who must earn the right to fulfill his longing to become a real live boy. All the well-known characters are there — including The Fox and The Cat, the Fire-eater, and of course that mean and monstrous whale.

5) An in-service program for teachers and administrators "to educate them to the support systems used at Doherty and immediate application of these principles where appropriate. Our learning atmosphere has given our children a flexibility and responsibility that may not be readily understood in other schools. This could be of system-wide benefit — a time for Andover faculties to share experiences and ideas."

6) Formation of a parent's group representing all schools, to work with the person responsible for redistricting, and a transition group in all schools, recognized by the school committee, for the purpose of receiving and communicating information to their parents.

Even Snowless Winter Brings Transit Authority

By Randolph W. Lehman-Becker
Andover's Representative
The Merrimack Valley
Regional Transit Authority

Following a very successful start of train service, the recent two weeks have brought the worst, it seems.

But, steps have already been taken to re-establish the fine record of that first 1½ months.

Beginning about Jan. 15, a series of engine problems brought about delays that ranged upwards to more than 30 minutes. These problems began in the MBTA's rebuilding of the engines: so they could supply electric power to the heating/lighting systems of the coaches, an auxiliary engine was added. To match the power requirements of the leased Toronto cars, an additional voltage step-down and regulating device had to be added as well. The result was a three tier process that could fail at any level. And, that is what has been happening.

In addition, some of the automated doors have failed in their intended operation. In many of the circumstances, on-board personnel were unable to repair the equipment either because they were not trained to do so, or would have been subjected to dangerous conditions. To keep these problems from continuing, the B&M

Transit Trends

During World War II, 19 billion passengers annually rode the nation's streetcars, subways, and city buses, Mass. Audubon reports. By 1973, ridership fell to 5.3 billion; by 1979 ridership had risen to 6.36 billion.

railroad, which operates the equipment for the MVRTA/MBTA, is assigning mechanics to ride with the troublesome engines while a corrective re-building program continues.

A long-term solution is the replacement of the Toronto equipment with new and/or rebuilt cars that will be compatible with the power of the engines and which do not rely on automated doorways. A program for the provision of these cars is now in the final planning stage, with an expectation of delivery beginning next Fall.

But, despite these short and long term efforts of the MBTA/B&M, some of the problems still continue; Tuesday's 7:22 p.m. at Andover did not arrive until 9 p.m. Based on these continuing problems, and at the request of Andover's Commuter Rail and Transportation Study Committee members, a representative of the MBTA Commuter Rail staff has been requested to appear at the Feb. 14 meeting of the Regional Transit Authority's governing Board. Those with specific comments on these problems and other concerns are asked to communicate them in writing to the MVRTA at 200 Merrimack St., Haverhill, with a request that they be shared with the advisory board. Your comments will be helpful in correcting the problems.

At that same meeting, the advisory board will also discuss changes in the Haverhill-Lawrence bus service, additional service and schedule changes in the train service, and discussion of energy alternatives in case of a full-scale crisis.

And, in the near future, Mass. Electric promises that our stations will be lighted. We'll be working our best at getting the trains to you on time in the future.

Three Day Suspension For Package Store

McCracken's Liquors in Shawsheen Square, had its packaged goods store license suspended for three days, Feb. 21-23, for selling liquor to a minor, by selectmen, sitting as the license commission Monday night.

The action followed a hearing held on the complaint, by the board, on Jan. 28.

The three-day suspension was voted on recommendation of Town Manager Jared S. A. Clark, who advised the board that the owners of the store had made honest attempts to control the sale of liquor to minors, based on evidence presented at the Jan. 28 hearing and on testimony of local police.

At the Jan. 28 hearing Patrolman John Milne testified that he had stopped a youth coming out of McCracken's on Dec. 26.

Milne said he had talked with William McCormick, a clerk in the store, who said he had sold some six-packs to the youth earlier, but had refused to sell to him on his second visit based on a policy of the store. McCormick later said that policy was based on the possibility that persons were selling to minors in the adjoining parking lot.

McCormick said at the time that he may have either miscalculated the date on the ID presented him, or it could have been another, or phony ID.

Monday night, selectmen were informed by Atty. Joseph Monteforte, counsel for William Buco, owner of McCracken's, that the clerk of the Lawrence District Court had refused to issue a complaint on the serving a minor charge when presented last Saturday.

Town Counsel Alfred S. Daniels advised selectmen that the finding of the courts did not necessarily mean that the board could not act on the license. He said the board was the licensing authority and had jurisdiction on that privilege, despite what the court action may be.

Atty. Monteforte insisted that the court was a proper arbitrator and had found no evidence to issue the complaint.

Selectman Norma Gammon said that an awful lot of people don't have any faith in the courts, adding that a technicality "can get someone off scott free."

Atty. Daniels said that the Saturday action was a hearing before the clerk, not an adjudication of the case. The clerk had refused to issue the complaint.

Acting Police Chief James Johnson said that he had been informed by Lt. Raymond Collins, prosecutor, that the clerk did not issue the complaint in view of clerk, McCormack being cited with the record, rather than the store itself.

Johnson also told the board that the police had received no complaints concerning operations at McCracken's, and agreed that they had the policy of not serving a person appearing at the store twice within a short period of time. He also said that the department had been called by McCracken's from time to time to get rid of youths in the parking lot attempting to get people to procure liquor for them.

Town Manager Clark told the board that the three day suspension, would probably result in a loss of some $6,000 to $7,000, based on a rough estimate of the type of operation and inventory held by the store.

Selectman Lawrence Sullivan said that the board's decision was apart from the court's findings, adding "we have an obligation to protect other citizens in the town from possibly being run down by some youth under the influence. We have the obligation of overseeing the license," moving for the three-day suspension to be put into effect Feb. 21-23.

It was noted that McCracken's had been warned on one occasion and had a five-day license suspension in 1978 on similar charges.

This prompted Selectman Susan T. Poore, preceding her vote on the matter Monday, to comment that if another similar complaint was before the board during her term, she would move for revocation.

Realtors Offer Three Scholarships

The Greater Lawrence Board of Realtors, Inc., has announced its 12th annual scholarship awards program for 1980, consisting of three separate awards of $500 each.

Two awards will be given to 1980 high school seniors, and a third to an upper classman attending Merrimack College.

The selection of high school seniors will be based on a combination of need and scholarship achievement while in high school. The Scholarship Committee of the Board will also consider the applicant's character, achievement and the likelihood of the applicant successfully pursuing the college course of study chosen.

The selection of the upperclassman from Merrimack College will be based on the same criteria, but will include the financial need to complete their studies in the major of their choice.

Applications will be available March 1st at school guidance offices, local libraries, and the Greater Lawrence Board of Realtors office at 7 Hampshire St., Methuen.

Completed applications for these awards must be received by April 18, and the candidates selected will be notified by May 9.

Members of the Scholarship Committee are Realtors John R. Williams, chairman;

Virginia Broadhurst, Paul Campbell, Sally Factor, Jane Fleming, Jane Glynn, Dave Hennessey, Wendy Perkins, Louise Ponti and Thelma Sirols.

East Jr. High Happenings

By Amy Higgins
And Heidi Lasch

We are proud to announce that East's eighth grade boys' basketball team has achieved another victory in a game against Tewksbury. East was 14 points behind until making a strong comeback to defeat Tewksbury by a score of 34-20. Pedro Gleason played an outstanding game as guard.

Room 400 won the attendance contest for the second term with a 97 percent attendance record. Each member of the homeroom and the homeroom teacher, Mrs. Margaret Dugal, will receive a free lunch in the cafeteria.

Peter Anderson's communication class has been hard at work creating advertisements about school spirit. The students used pictures, posters and lettering in various forms to promote school spirit. The work, displayed on walls and bulletin boards throughout the school, has met with enthusiasm from everyone at East.

The student of the month awards for January were announced at class meetings last Monday. Seventh grader Laura MacVicar received the award for academic excellence; 8th grader Hang Dang for excellence in academics, sports and friendliness; J. J. Downey of the ninth grade for sports, human relations and school service.

The get into the spirit of Saint Valentine's Day we are holding a tag day next Thursday, Feb. 14. Tags will be on sale the day before and during homeroom period. During periods, one, two and three the boys may "tag" the girls. In return the girls may tag the boys during periods four, eight and nine. Students who are tagged will be required to carry the books of the one who tagged them.

At the student council meeting this week Katie Darwin and Jim Denoncourt were appointed to maintain the bulletin board and publicize activities for the remainder of the year.

Also at this meeting the members, along with other students in the school, volunteered to work at the Rec Department to assist in filing, making posters and doing paperwork to get ready for registration. The students will work Feb. 14 and 15

High School Registration

To the Editor of The Townsman:

A total of fifty-eight high school students responded to a recent appeal to register to vote. The registration drive, sponsored by the Andover League of Women Voters, and assisted by Town Clerk Elden Salter, occurred on Jan. 30 at the high school.

The turnout was larger than expected. The new registrants, who had to be eighteen by March 4, seemed pleased with the convenience and ease involved. Now they are adults in a new sense. Now they are eligible to make their voice heard at the ballot box. Now they can participate in the democratic process. As part of the electorate, the upcoming primaries, elections, and Town Meeting will provide ample opportunity for the exercise of their newest privilege.

The Voter Service committee of the Andover League wishes to thank the town clerk and high school principal Philip Wormwood for their cooperation. The league hopes to sponsor future registration drives for students turning 18 after March 4. Look and listen for announcements.

18 Early Filers

Get Fast Results

Commissioner L. Joyce Hampers of the Department of Revenue had good news today for Massachusetts taxpayers who filed their income tax returns early.

She announced 51,249 refund checks totaling $920,840 have been mailed, establishing another "first" in the new-look agency she took over as commissioner a year ago.

"This is the largest number and dollar amount of refunds ever sent out this early in the yearly filing period," she said.

While praising people who filed early returns, Hampers also handed out kudos to her department's personnel and their efficiency of operation in utilizing to the fullest resources available to them, including computer capability.

Deputy Commissioner George Osganian, who heads the Division of Processing, said the Data Services Bureau under Chief A. Phyllis O'Halloran, will be mailing out an average of 100,000-plus refunds weekly through June.

By June 30, it is expected that some 1.9 million refunds will have been issued for a total of $200 million.

The Department mailed out 2.25 million income tax forms in December.

Of the 51,249 refunds, Hampers said the taxpayers not only filed early, but their returns were free of errors. "This is an absolute requirement for people expecting early refund checks," she said.

"Remember, early filers get early refunds," she said for the benefit of people who have not yet filed.

DeLuca - Hartman

At home in Salem, N.H., are Mr. and Mrs. William P. DeLuca III, who were married November 24 at the Merrimack College Chapel in North Andover.

The bride is the former Diane Hartman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hartman, 26 Mary Lou Lane, Andover. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William P. DeLuca, Jr., 61 Birch Road, Andover.

The Rev. Paul Keyes of Brighton, and Rabbi Samuel Umen of Manchester, N.H., performed the wedding before an altar decorated with a Williamsburg arrangement of Fugi mums in ice pink, white chrysanthemums and Boston ferns. The pews were marked with Fugi mums and carnations.

Special guitar and vocal music was provided by Linda and Andy Pickard.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of silk organza, fashioned with a cathedral train, high neck and bishop's sleeves and trimmed with Venice lace and seed pearls. Her ruffled picture hat was trimmed with matching lace and a full-length veil.

She carried an elongated, semi-tapered cascade of white masterpiece roses, stephanotis, baby's breath, touches of ice pink sweetheart roses and polished ivy.

Elizabeth Hartman attended as maid of honor, wearing a sylesta gown in tara rose with scooped neckline, bell sleeves and accordion-pleated skirt. She carried a madonna arrangement of ice pink carnations and baby's breath.

Wearing matching gowns in jay blush were the bridesmaids, Debbie Santangelo of Bridgewater, N. J., Ann Hartman and Kathleen, Mary Beth and Lisa DeLuca, all of Andover. They carried madonna bouquets of miniature carnations in various shades of pink, with baby's breath.

Mrs. Hartman chose a gown in deep rose for her daughter's wedding, while the groom's mother wore cranberry chiffon. They both wore cymbidium orchids.

Mark Sweetser of Framingham and Mike Bowerman of Bellevue, Washington, shared best man duties. Ushers were Tom Barenboim and Richard Hartman of Andover, and Jay Woidyla of Lawrence.

After a reception at the Sheraton Rolling Green in Andover the couple took a wedding trip to Hawaii.

The new Mrs. DeLuca graduated from Andover High School, and received an A.A. degree as a medical assistant from Green Mountain College in Poultney, Vermont. She is an orthodontic therapist.

Her husband also graduated from Andover High, and received his B.S. degree in business administration from the University of New Hampshire. He is employed by Woodworth Chevrolet-Cadillac, Inc., in Andover.

AIM Concert Sunday

"Peewee the Piccolo," "Tubby the Tuba," "Tubby the Tuba at the Circus," and "The Happy Prince" will comprise Adventures In Music's third concert of the 1979-1980 season on Sunday, Feb. 10 at 3 p.m. at Reading Memorial High School Auditorium.

Newton Wayland, Music Director for AIM will conduct the orchestra while Peter Johnson and Sue Ellen Kuzma narrate the pieces. Mr. Johnson is well known to local audiences as Dirty Frank on Jabberwocky and is also heard regularly on WGBH's "The Spider's Web." Ms. Kuzma was director of the Young Audiences Opera Group for five years and has soloed at Symphony Hall with the Handel and Haydn Society.

Peewee and Tubby, both written by American composer George Kleinsinger are upbeat stories about each respective instrument, the piccolo, which has to play a solo and can't find one anywhere, and the Tuba, never able to play a melody, which finally soars from frustration to triumph. "The Happy Prince," also composed by Kleinsinger is based on a short story by Oscar Wilde and concerns a statue and a swallow which help people. That work and "Tubby the Tuba at the Circus" which are both rich in visual detail will be presented with slides in the background made from drawings by students from Andover and neighboring towns. Concert information may be obtained from Mrs. Richard Nichols.

Students from Andover who would like to participate in dance or mime during the last concert of the season on March 30, may audition for roles on Feb. 14, 3:30 to 5:30 p.m. at Coolidge Jr. High School in Reading. The snow date is Feb. 16, 10 to 12:30 p.m.

No prior experience or training is necessary and students will have the opportunity to work with professionals Lois Hoffman and Karen Mahoney. Ms. Hoffman has been choreographer for Zoom and Catch a Rainbow and Ms. Mahoney teaches music on the secondary level in Winchester. The dancers will perform to the works of Aaron Copland, in a story woven around a Mexican folk tale.

Cubs Have Field Trips

Pack 77 Cub Scouts and their leaders went to Memorial Hall Library recently for a most informative evening led by Ms. Bennett, who talked about the ins and outs of borrowing and care of library books, tapes, records. Some of the cubs who hadn't already registered were allowed to do so.

A trip to Haverhill to enjoy a fun filled day of roller skating was also held. Leaders and parents were also on hand to help out.

The Cubs are looking forward to Feb. 4 for their Blue and Gold Banquet to be held at the West Elementary School. Dinner will be served at 6:30 p.m. followed by the awards ceremony. Entertainment will be supplied by "Magical Rick," Richard Groleau of Lawrence, assisted by his wife Brenda.

On Dean's List

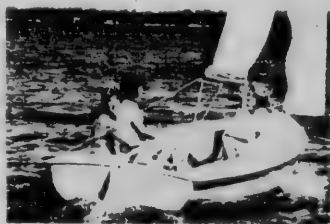

Barbara J. O'Connor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hal O'Connor, 16 Smithshire Estates, Andover, has been named to the dean's list for the fall semester at Green Mountain College, Poultney, Vermont. She is a freshman studying to be an executive secretary.

A 3.3 grade average is required for the honor.

To prevent rice, noodles or spaghetti from boiling over, add a few teaspoons of cooking oil to the water.

To Honor Father Martin

The hundreds of friends of Father Jon Martin of the Merrimack Valley and points north and south, are rejoicing about the announcement that the Merrimack Valley Chapter of the March of Dimes Birth Defects Foundation has named him "Humanitarian of the Year."

A mammoth effort by his numerous friends throughout the entire Merrimack Valley, New Hampshire and Maine are uniting enthusiastically in coordinating a "Giant Roast" to be held at the Speare House, Lowell on Feb. 29. Several fellow priests and friends will roast him "Well Done" with humorous results.

Father Martin was ordained by Richard Cardinal Cushing in 1965 and assigned to St. Michael, Lowell and transferred in 1973 to St. Robert Bellarmine, Andover.

The first recipient of this honor was Dr. William R. O'Reilly a widely known Andover pediatrician who was roasted in 1978. Zenophon Spenoris of Lowell was "Well Done" in 1979. Monies raised from these roasts help support programs here in the Merrimack Valley. These include Therapeutic play equipment for Hogan Regional Center of Danvers; equipment for intensive care units of neonatal care for community hospitals; Parent to parent mutual sponsorship support, understanding and assistance with non-medical problems for parents of children with special needs; Support of the Center for Genetic Counseling and Birth Defects Evaluation, Boston Floating Hospital for infants and children and the Genetic Counseling Satellite at St. John's Hospital, Lowell (all residents of the Merrimack Valley can receive services at these facilities at no cost); transportation for patients with birth defects or residual polio to medical services; and educational programs in schools and industry.

Father Martin has long been recognized throughout New England for his 20 years of dedicated service with the physically handicapped, mentally retarded and youths with drug and criminal problems. He has also been associated with the Teen Encounters program in bringing to young people knowledge of Jesus in their lives, and retreats for inmates in area prisons.

His multi-faceted talents have lead him into the theatre where he has performed as leading man in "1776," "Never To Late," "Scapino," "The Sunshine Boys," and many other vehicles specifically for raising funds for Camp Fatima for mentally retarded where he spends his entire summer vacation and donated his salary to the cause. He has written, directed and produced a number of musicals and is a reknowned singer.

His musical talents carry him to rest homes, hospitals and jails. He is a member of group of eight priests called "Priests Singers" who entertain for fund raising purposes for religious orders. He has been a television participant with musical productions and on the staff of Boston's Parish of the Airways, whose liturgies and services are televised on Channels, 4, 5, 7 and 27.

His work with Christian Education has spread to where he has delivered major addresses in several educational institutions in the United States.

Marriage Topic At Hospital

In every marriage there are daily pressures of economic, social and personal nature. These factors often overshadow the basis of the relationship — mutual love, trust and understanding. How to enrich what began at the time of the marriage vows and enhance the continued commitment to the relationship is the subject of the next Bon Secours Hospital's "Healthy Issues" program, Feb. 20. "How to Enrich your Marriage" will be moderated by the staff members of Family Service Association of Greater Lawrence.

Brian Landgon, executive director of Family Service Association explains, "It becomes very important to the continued growth of every marriage, to be able to identify the strengths of the individual partners and work together using these strengths to deal with problems that arise." The program will focus on issues related to communication in marriage.

The program will commence with a "Play for Living," which is part of a series of short plays that deal with issues of daily significance. The play will set the stage for the discussion led by counselors from Family Service and the audience will then break into groups. Married couples as well as those planning to be married can gain insight into the dimensions of personal relationships and ways to increase the joys of marriage.

The program will be held in Bon Secours Hospital auditorium at 7:30 p.m. and is open to the public.

Rose Glen Gets License

Rose Glen Dairy on Andover Street was finally granted a common victualler's license by selectmen sitting as the license commission Monday night.

The issue, before the board for the past month as clarification of the need for such a license to be sought, was approved on a three-two vote. Selectmen Susan T. Poore and Norma Gammon opposed the issuance, based on the concern about expansion of the dairy bar business.

Need for the license was determined by the building inspector who informed the owner, Doug Adams that since food was consumed on the premises, the license was necessary. Town Counsel Alfred S. Daniel concurred in the finding.

The dairy bar has been in operation since 1971 under a permit granted by the zoning board of appeals at that time.

Selectmen Poore and Gammon were concerned about tables and chairs in the operation of the business, in view of past business there being confined to the serving of ice cream and such products only.

Town Manager Jared S. A. Clark informed the board that he had discussed the matter along with the zoning board decisions last Friday and that Adams agreed that there was no expansion of the business into a full-scale restaurant contemplated.

Clark suggested the board grant the victualler's license based on conditions that include continued operation of the business as principally a dairy bar, with no fried foods, or fast foods permitted, the present three tables and nine chairs not be expanded, and any other expansion would have to be placed before the zoning board of appeals and selectmen for approval.

Adams would be allowed to continue to bake cakes and pies which would be part of the ice cream, or confection, operation of the present business and "breakfast foods," such as doughnuts.

Adams assured the board that he had no plans to expand the business beyond its present scope.

Mrs. Gammon expressed concern about the tables and chairs in the operation there, noting they were not part of the original business. Mrs. Poore said she felt that concern should be addressed, along with suggesting that in the granting of the license a condition be placed that any other contemplated use of the facility would cause reconsideration of the license.

Selectman James Abramson said that he did not feel the businessman should be penalized, "because we just woke up," noting that the business had never had a victualler's license, and the board was unaware of its necessity.

Put to a vote, Abramson, Lawrence Sullivan and Chairman Edward M. Harris approved the granting of the license.

'Change Is Not Easy'

"Change is not easy for any of us," School Chairman Elaine Viehmann said Tuesday night, after the superintendent announced the impending administrative changes.

She was responding particularly to a Sanborn parent who delivered a PTO objection to the transfer of their principal, Joseph Normandy.

"The children and faculty and parents think a lot of him," John Merenda said.

Supt. Kenneth R. Seifert had already praised the administrators for their positive reactions to the moves, and Bancroft Principal Jack Coyle was the first to respond Tuesday night.

He said, he had thoroughly enjoyed his working relationship with staff and parents at Bancroft over the past seven and a half years, and hoped that "many of the programs that we were able to institute at Bancroft" could be "fully adapted at West Elementary."

He said he had suggested that Bancroft would be one of the better facilities for implementing the developmental primary program, because of its unique spaces, and that he felt the program should be run and expanded under Lois Haslam, who developed it.

While reluctant to leave Bancroft, he said he saw West — the biggest elementary school in town — as a new challenge.

Haslam in turn said she had enjoyed her seven years at Doherty and looks forward "to at least seven more at Bancroft." She said she hoped to present a full, K through 6 developmental program to the school committee for its approval within the next two years.

South's Jack Woodward drew laughter when he wanted to assure the Sanborn parents, who had spoken up earlier, "that I don't affront easily."

He said he agrees with the superintendent on the need for "renewal" of the system and that he would do the best job he could "wherever I go."

Seifert said that Isabel Dobbie, while not on the docket for a transfer, had been "very pleased" with her assignment as a resource person for budget and transportation. He said she had already expressed interest in setting up an in-service program with bus drivers, on "how to handle the most adventuresome tykes on the bus."

Arlene Wald of Tanglewood Way said it was time for "Andover as a community to look at what is best for all the children," and "take changes in stride." She said she was anxious to share Doherty's programs, "and benefit from others."

Seifert also made a plea Tuesday night for the concept that "the neighborhood school is the entire community."

classroom and go directly to "that giant textbook known as the laminated sheet cart" and take up where he left off.

"There are very, very few school systems in the U. S. where that can happen," Seifert said.

Seifert maintained that many systems have had a full-time building coordinator from the beginning of a project. While Andover has "gotten along satisfactorily" so far, he said there's a considerable amount of work to be done between now and April Town Meeting. And without a coordinator, "we won't have a reasonable redistricting plan."

He said redistricting isn't simply a matter of bus routes and that in fact, transportation is one of the smaller issues. There's also one school full of furniture, he said, and five other schools with various needs in that department.

When it comes to redistricting staff, he said, transfers won't just be passing of sheets of papers, "Someone has to sit down and talk with the person."

The building coordinator, Seifert said, will facilitate the educational specifications and concept, implement a re-districting plan, assist in the formulation and implementation of an in-service program for new building program concepts, and centralize responsibility for public information on the building program and redistricting.

Joseph Howard of Livingston Circle asked about the coordinator's salary, and why closing a school didn't reduce administrators by one.

Seifert said he wouldn't discuss specific salary until the school committee approved the position. But, he said, the coordinator would receive the same salary he now receives as administrator, somewhere between $23,000 and $29,000. He said that Town Manager Jared S. A. Clark had indicated that since certain of the coordinator's responsibilities would fall under the building program, some of the funds might come from the town.

School Committeeman Alan Doerr, who moved to approve the new position, noted that the town is obligated by contract to maintain the current administrators at their current salaries, for the next two years anyway.

Colleague John Eaton added that within the next two years there will be a decline in teachers, and "we'll see what happens with administrators." Seifert had earlier stated that another school closing will be likely in two or three years.

Doerr's motion put a two-year limit on the coordinator position, and the move was unanimously approved by himself, Eaton, School Chairman Elaine Viehmann and Committeeman Donald Robb.

School Issues On Agenda

Infant Saved By Firefighters

Quick action by Andover firefighters Saturday evening saved the life of an infant.

Benjamin Bradway, nine months, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bradway of 18 Chandler Circle, was choking and had stopped breathing when Firefighters Wayne Allin and Scott Gorrie arrived at the home in response to a call for the ambulance shortly before 5:30 p.m.

Allin, an emergency medical technician (EMT), pounded the youngster's back, cleared the airway or breathing pain, and administered oxygen as they transported the youngster to Lawrence General Hospital. While en route to the hospital, the infant began breathing again and this color began to return.

"What a relief to see him gulp that first breath of air," Allin said with a sense of satisfaction at having successfully applied his life saving training.

The youngster was admitted to the hospital for observation and released on Monday.

While there will be several items of a varying nature to command the attention of voters at the annual town meeting this year, the general theme could well be school-oriented.

Action on bonding funds for new school construction and renovation will be the featured item on the agenda, no doubt, but there are some other school items which have been inserted in the warrant for consideration.

Selectmen this week approved placing in the warrant, at the request of the school committee, an item asking for $425,000 for repairs to school buildings.

Included in the scope of the article are repairs to roofs of three schools, Bancroft, $62,000; West Elementary, $260,000 and Shawsheen, $65,500, along with $37,500 for new floorcovering in several school buildings.

The town will also be afforded an opportunity to act on an advisory question with regard to town-school building maintenance.

Residents will be asked to advise if they would desire the administration to work toward a centralized staff for maintenance of town and school properties. This has been before the voters in the past and agreed upon. After considerable discussion several years ago, a building maintenance supervisor was found to be more in need by the school department, thus the position has been specialized in that area.

Accepted this week, for insertion in the warrant by the town clerk, was a private article dealing with the Bancroft school.

Donald Coleman of High Street submitted an article asking the town to sell the Bancroft to private interests and use the funds toward construction of a new junior high building in the center of town.

Reviewing warrant items this week, selectmen agreed to place before the voters an $8,000 appropriation for repair of the bandstand in The Park.

The facility, used for concerts in the summer and also for activities conducted by the department of community services, has been a constant target of vandalism.

Town Manager Jared S. A. Clark told the board this week that the matter should be placed before the meeting and if funds are not provided, probably the structure should be torn down.

Selectman James Abramson offered that providing funds for such a project may be foolhardy in view of vandals returning to the scene after the improvements and repairs were made.

Gravel pit regulations will also be on the agenda.

Foster's Pond residents have submitted three sets of rules and regulations for such operations. Selectman Susan T. Poore asked her colleagues to delay action on this particular warrant item until next Monday, in the hope that the town and the residents can come up with a mutually agreeable regulatory item. The three articles by the residents are on file and may be inserted or withdrawn, pending next Monday's session.

It is anticipated that the warrant will formally be closed at next Monday's meeting.

Minister To Seek Term On Board

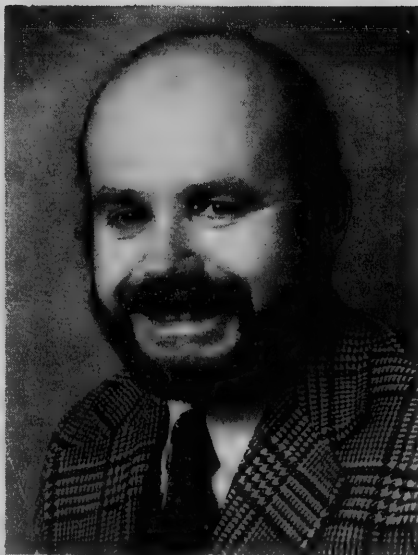

Randolph W. Lehman-Becker, Andover's representative to the Merrimack Valley Regional Transit Authority, and co-minister of the Unitarian Universalist Church of Andover, has announced his candidacy for selectman.

Lehman-Becker, a resident of Burnham Road, has served as minister to the church for over five years. He is a graduate of Brandeis University (degree work in Physics and Sociology), with a Doctor of Ministry from Meadville Theological School of Lombard College at the University of Chicago. He has also pursued additional graduate work in Urban History and Early Childhood Education.

He is married to Gayle Lehman-Becker, who shares the ministry with him. They have a daughter, Lee.

In commenting on his candidacy, Dr. Lehman-Becker said: "What is important to most of us in Andover is the quality of life. In the midst of the 'big' issues, we often forget about the little things that truly make this a comfortable, enjoyable, secure place to live, work and grow. The quality of life in Andover involves issues of noise, traffic, vandalism, youth programming, elderly services, and the little amenities. These issues cannot make up for decisive action on some of the major choices before us, but without the concern for quality of life, the major choices become just empty, expensive gestures." Already his campaign has brought him in touch with people and people's concerns: "What I hear in the community is a desire for representative government that is truly representative, and to me that means a town leadership that is available to the public on a day-to-day basis. The ability to comment to your 'selectman' when you meet him or her on the street, or by telephone whenever an issue arises, makes our government both responsive and representative. The people's concerns are the foundation of our system."

"Money is always at the heart of a resident's concern," Dr. Lehman-Becker added, when asked about the general issue of the rates and funding. "And I like any other taxpayer, want to see the line held on expenses. But, how do we do that? We start, it seems to me, by recognizing that throwing money and technology at our problems does not mean a solution, and both state and federal money, as much as they may look like a "free gift" eventually wind up costing us something. What we have now is a situation in which our financial resources are over-worked in search of solutions, and our human resources are under-utilized as part of our real solutions. We all have much to give, and that does not need to be money. Encouraging those human resources is the challenge of town leadership. Couple those resources with thoughtful, clean growth of industry and residence, and we can be optimistic about our future."

Dr. Lehman-Becker has served on the Commuter Rail and Transportation Study Committee, is a member of the Andover Clergy Group, is a visiting lecturer to both Northern Essex Community College and Andover Newton Theological School, and has been active in work with adolescents in educational and group home work.

Doyle Ordered To Sign Deed

Russell G. Doyle was ordered by Essex County Probate Judge Haskell C. Freedman, to sign a deed conveying 31 acres of land off River Road to Patricia Doyle Wednesday morning.

The order handed down by Judge Freedman followed a hearing held in Probate Court, Lawrence on Tuesday, asking that Russell G. Doyle be found in contempt for not having conveyed the property to Patricia in a probate court agreement handed down in Sept. 7, 1979.

The court order filed Wednesday, requires Russell Doyle to sign the deed within two days, or be subject to being found in contempt.

The land conveyance, with easements, is involved in the planned purchase and development by Wang Laboratories off River Road.

Wang has extended its purchase and sales agreement to obtain over 100 acres in all for construction of a new $10 million plant to employ up to 2,000 people over the next three to five years. Officials of the company indicated that if the deed and accompanying legal problems were not resolved by the Feb. 8 deadline, there probably would be a further extension.

A 43-acre tract of land is involved in the legal proceedings. Russell had agreed to convey to Patricia some 33 acres of land off River Road in a probate court finding, handed down last September. Russell would retain ten acres fronting on River Road.

The deed had not been conveyed and some restrictions were placed by Russell prior to the filing of the contempt complaint by attorneys for Patricia on Jan. 16.

The deed ordered to be signed by the court on Wednesday, conveys the land to Patricia from Russell, with easements to gain access to the 31,930 acres, to maintain roadways, install and maintain utilities.

It is anticipated that this would remove legal obstacles to the exercising of the purchase and sales agreement by Wang for the total parcel.

The town has approved Wang's application to apply for industrial revenue bonds in the amount of $10 million to proceed with their planning and development of the West Andover parcel located to the rear of the Vocational School.

Registration Wednesday

Registration for the Community Services Winter/Spring Program will be held on Wednesday, Feb. 13. It will begin at 7 p.m. at the East Jr., West Jr., and Sanborn schools. Though the evening registrations will be counted first, those who do not wish to wait in line may register by mail or in person at the Community Services Department.

Our Junior Miss Spreads Some Good Will

Cheryl Renee Pruneau added another chapter to her high school memory book last month, and spread some good will for Andover at the same time.

Andover's official Junior Miss, and a senior at Andover High, Renee spent the week of Jan. 13 at the 1980 Massachusetts Junior Miss Pageant at Dunfey's Resort in Hyannis.

"Meeting such a diversity of people," was what impressed her the most.

"It was great the way most of us became such close friends," she says. "We are already planning reunions."

It was for from "all play," however. Renee and 31 other girls from throughout the state began each day at 6:30 o'clock, when they were transported from their host homes to all-day rehearsals at Dunfey's, in preparation for the actual pageant and judging on Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

They were also guests of the Kiwanis Club, Rotary Club, various restaurants and the Kennedy Compound — with a little time out for a visit to the beach — and participated at a fashion show at the Cape Cod Mall. Renee modeled a jumpsuit she had made from a Simplicity pattern — one of the requirements of the program. She also modeled attire from Casual Corner.

The judging portion of the pageant was broken down into five categories: an interview, creative and performing arts, youth fitness, poise and appearance, and scholastic achievement.

Renee enjoyed the poise and appearance section, and amusingly recalls the dramatic change of the girls from their rehearsal garb to elegant gowns. She also enjoyed the interview by the judges.

"It was good to be able to express my viewpoint on such serious subjects as the Iranian crisis, abortion, women's liberation and Governor King," she says.

Rehearsing for the youth fitness portion, "Sea Voyage," consisted of rigorous calisthenics while dressed in sailor uniforms.

The girls were not allowed to see their parents, or friends from their Sunday arrival until the Parent's Luncheon the following Saturday.

"Junior Miss really creates friendships," Renee maintains. She stayed with the James Clarkes of West Yarmouth, "a host family that did not treat me as a guest, but really as one of their children. They seemed too good to be true!"

Renee's roommate was Greater Brockton's Junior Miss, Diana DiFrancesca, with whom Renee has already talked three times since she's been back.

Renee has also been invited to attend a fashion show on the South Shore, where she will once again represent her hometown as Andover's Junior Miss.

Meanwhile, she continues her local activities: she's a member of the School Building Committee and the Youth Needs Study Committee; she writes a high school column for the Andover Townsman; and she's editor of the school newspaper, "The Warrior," creative editor of the year book, a peer counselor and a member of the regional and state Student Advisory Committees. She holds many offices in SAC and is a member of the evaluation of educational personnel committee.

Renee plans to attend Duke University, where she will major in pre-law, and she hopes to pursue a career in law and politics. Her secret desire is to someday have a novel published.

Getting The Agenda On Course

It would appear that the setting of the annual town meeting agenda is on a proper course, with, of course, the school construction issue the center of attention.

A 60-item warrant will probably be established once all the articles are in and the warrant formally closed, an action anticipated next Monday night by the selectmen.

School construction issues have been paramount in consideration for the past couple of years. Now, with some definite decisions made, such as a school closing, establishing the grade alignment, and other matters, we can view a sort of movement toward placing the matter of financing some new school construction before the voters in April.

Coupled with that will be some other items, relating to the school issue, and on which Andover voters will be able to make some far-reaching decisions.

For instance, voters will be asked to give the town-school administration some advice on what they wish to have done with the East Junior High building.

It has been determined that the structure would be feasible for conversion to central school-town office facilities.

Too, in the planning of the conversion of the Doherty school to a junior high building, incorporation of the present Memorial Auditorium could provide some savings in the total construction package.

There is considerable emotional feeling among some in Andover regarding the East structure — or former Punchard High building. In April, it can be anticipated that those feelings will be transmitted into the form of positive consideration for retention of the structure.

Whatever the decision, it is one of several to be made which will have a definite effect on Andover's future, and what the townspeople wish to do about their tax rate.

Others include an advisory question on whether the town is desirous of creation of a centralized town-school, building maintenance department, an item debated from time to time in the past, and now placed up for consideration again.

Also due for consideration is an item requesting $425,000 for roof repairs and other improvements to school buildings. This is in response to the need to attend to proper maintenance of the school's physical plant, often the sacrificial item at budget time, but which ultimately has to be faced — often on costlier terms.

Aside from school issues, the warrant will contain a number of items for which money will be required. A year ago, faced with tax cap legislation and an effort to stay within guidelines, financial considerations were kept to a minimum.

Items deferred a year ago, are back in the agenda, along with a number of other considerations. The town administration is placing before the town the option of doing some things which could be considered frills, or putting aside such items as $8,000 to repair the bandstand in the park.

Thus, it seems, as we view the warrant being put together and reaching the final stages next week, Andover residents will be acting on more than just a school construction matter, it will be carving its own future course, as well as its tax rate destiny, when the meeting convenes in April.

It will be an agenda worthy of the attendance anticipated by the decision this week to utilize Case Memorial Cage at Phillips Academy in order to accommodate as many as possible.

Down The Years With The Townsman

75 Years Ago — February 1905

Somebody's pet cat (evidently lost) has been well cared for at 35 School St., for about three weeks. It is hoped that the owners will read these lines and claim the cat soon.

Fred Collins stopped a pair of horses on Essex St. Monday afternoon which were running away. They were attached to a hack which contained two people.

Miss Della Cabot of Cambridge will be the soloist at the South Church Sunday evening. Miss Cabot, who accompanies herself on the Apollo harp, was heard with much acceptance here last month.

Omar P. Chase won four firsts and a third prize with his golden Wyandottes at the recent exhibition of the Keene Fancier's Society.

The employees of Walter French were entertained by him last evening at his home on Elm Street. A clam supper was served. Recently Mr. French received a fine roll top desk from his men.

The regular meeting of the Girls' Friendly Society will be omitted Monday as a Parish Sociable will take place on that evening to which the GFS are cordially invited.

50 Years Ago — February 1930

A series of articles prepared with this purpose of familiarizing Andover citizens with present school conditions and requirements and showing their bearing on the need for a new junior high school building has been prepared by the school committee.

The Board of Public Works will duplicate its plea of a year ago and ask for $40,000 at the annual town meeting in March for steam pumping equipment, Venturi meter and other necessary improvements at the Haggets Pond pumping station. The project was defeated last year.

A pop concert followed by the one-act play "Lotus Flowers" by J. C. McMullen, sponsored by the Christian Endeavors Society, attracted nearly 100 person to the Free Church parish house Tuesday.

Andover Grange celebrated its fortieth anniversary in a manner peculiarly fitting, with Brother Harry Playdon leading the singing by the audience of several old songs, after which Mr. Playdon spoke very briefly.

25 Years Ago — February 1955

The difficulties of Andover's abandoning the 6-3-3 junior high setup was read by Chairman C. Carlton Kimball to the rest of the school committee Tuesday. A return to the outmoded 8-4, he said, would not be in the best interest of the town.

The trampoline that has been in use at the Andover Youth Center since last fall was officially presented to the directors at their meeting last week by the Andover Society.

In his police department budget this year Chief David A. Nicoll is asking for an additional sergeant for the force and an extra man to work on the parking meters, the latter to be paid out of the parking meter fund.

Andover's newly organized Lion's Club received its charter night dance last Saturday at the Andover Country Club.

William Doherty is a candidate for election to one of the two three-year terms on the school committee at the annual elections.

10 Years Ago — February 1970

Interest in the annual town elections appears to be high, with a record number of new voters registering as of Tuesday this week.

"The best thing that ever happened to this town," happened in three all-day budget sessions earlier this year. FinCom Chairman Albert Greenberg said this week. The school administrators cut $350,000 from their budgets.

Miss Catharine M. Barrett, 102 CQUESTNUT St., will retire as principal of the Central Elementary School July 31. Dr. Kenneth R. Seifert said, "Her benchmark which will remain is her kindness and cooperation."

A seventh-grade class at Andover East Junior High recently extended their studies of the Soviet Union by preparing, serving and eating a Russian meal in the foods laboratory of the school. The menu consisted of Borscht, beef stroganoff, poppy seed noodles, cucumbers with dill and sour cream, "Kremlin" cake, tea or milk.

The Andover schools will pair a class of elementary students with a minority class from another school system this spring. The classroom pairing will be part of a pilot project to help children develop a sensitivity to all kinds of people.

American Short Story Series

American Short Story Series, aired on Channel 2 over the next 12 weeks, captures characters, moods and values of a special time and place in American culture. All teleplays have been faithfully adapted from short stories written by some of America's best known storytellers. Next week's feature will be "Paul's Case" by Willa Cather. Other authors in succeeding weeks will include Nathaniel Hawthorne, Mark Twain, F. Scott Fitzgerald, Flannery O'Connor and John Updike. Memorial Hall Library will highlight the story, the author and a viewer's guide each week during the series.

IRS Tax Tapes

The Internal Revenue Service has provided Memorial Hall Library with a cassette tape which covers step-by-step instructions to complete the 1979 1040 and 1040A Income Tax Forms. The cassette may be borrowed from the reference librarian for a period of several days. Patrons with vision problems will find the "Tax Tapes" especially useful.

This week the Group will continue their discussion on "The Conference Man" by Herman Melville. All persons interested in reading and discussion some of the great works of literature are cordially invited to join.

Melloni's Illustrated Medical Dictionary

The rapid expansion and accumulation of knowledge required in the health sciences, coupled with a decrease in the time available to acquire this knowledge, has created the need for a new dictionary of health-science terminology. "Melloni's Illustrated Medical Dictionary," a new addition to the Reference Collection at Memorial Hall Library, provides a compilation of 25,000 terms that comprise the common core of information for all health science and provides the general public with a brief and to the point explanation of medical terms.

Children's Room News by Bridget Bennett

Our weekly film program for pre-schoolers on February 8 will include "The Smallest Elephant in the World", "Cockaboo" and "Arrow to the Sun", based on the award-winning book by Gerald McDermott. The program will be shown at 10:30 a.m. and again at 2 p.m. and will last approximately one-half hour.

Parents of very young children may be glad to know that we are now circulating a small collection of laminated cardboard books for tots. These are sturdily made, brightly illustrated books for children who may be too young for books with paper pages. For children who are interested in dinosaurs, Debbie Bartle's collection is now on display in the Children's Room.

JACK ANDERSON

WEEKLY SPECIAL

Is Olympics Torch
To Be Reds' Flame?By JACK ANDERSON and JOE SPEAR

WASHINGTON -- The first ancient Olympic Games began in 776 B.C. as part of the glory that was Greece. The Olympic flame symbolizing peace and sportsmanship among amateur athletes died centuries later when the Romans ruled the world and their emperors fouled the ideals with crass corruption and political self-aggrandizement. For instance, the tyrant Nero won laurels in the chariot race by fixing the event.

The Olympic Games were reborn early this century in the hope of rekindling the original spirit of friendly competition among nations. The quadrennial sports spectacles were interrupted by two world wars but survived to bring together athletes from around the globe.

The flame of the Olympics is now in danger of being snuffed out at the hands of the rulers of the Kremlin who were awarded the torch to conduct the games in Moscow this summer by the sports czars of the International Olympics Committee.

IOC President Lord Killanin is disdainfully rejecting President Carter's demand that the 1980 games be moved out of Moscow because of the Soviet takeover of a defenseless Afghanistan. The Irish peer haughtily says the Russians have broken no Olympic rules and that politics should play no role in his organization's simon-pure Olympian considerations.

Killanin and the Olympics are being treated as a cat's paw by the Soviet sports commissars, according to a long string of classified cable reports from our Moscow embassy.

They have used the games as a springboard to present Russia as a communist success story to gullible visitors this summer. The Soviets have collected millions from capitalist enterprises such as the NBC-TV network to refurbish their dingy hotels and build massive new Olympic village dormitories for eventual use as public housing.

Transportation and communications facilities have been enhanced with the help of Western contractors to show Russia as a workers' paradise. The Soviet Olympics Committee, working as an arm of the Kremlin propaganda machinery, has issued four foreign-language magazines extolling life behind the Iron Curtain.

"Finally for the first time," one publication proclaims, "the Olympics is being hosted by a country which exemplifies the Olympic goals." No mention is made of the detention of liberty-loving dissident Nobel Prize-winner Andrei Sakharov.

Even the Soviet mascot emblem for the games, a cuddly little "Misha the Bear," has been converted to propaganda purposes. The Soviet Olympics Committee describes Misha as "feared but loved" and "very dangerous to anger."

There is a strong likelihood that our dedicated U.S. athletes won't compete in the Moscow Olympics this year. Every American will sympathize with their frustration at not taking part in the sports tradition that began centuries ago in Greece. But it should be noted that even the idealistic Greeks of those days barred "women, foreigners and slaves" from their games.

WHISTLE-BLOWER BLUES: Whatever our young athletes sacrifice to protest the Soviet Afghanistan aggression, a middle-aged Commerce Department official has already paid for trying to warn that we were foolishly gullible in dealing with the Kremlin.

We wrote last July that Larry Brady was courageous and far-sighted enough to tell a secret congressional committee hearing that the Carter administration was foolish in approving the sale of computers and other technology that could be useful to the Russian military machine.

Upon learning of his forthright testimony in opposition to the administration's line, Brady's superiors issued a reprimand, demoted him to another job and told him to stop talking to congressmen.

When the Soviet strike forces rolled into Afghanistan, the CIA quickly discovered that trucks, mass-produced with the help of our IBM computers, were transporting Red Army troops across the border in the blitzkrieg.

The Carter administration hastily second-guessed itself and the president blocked further shipment of spare computer parts to Russia.

The hindsight did Brady little good. After being heckled and made a pariah for his whistleblowing, Larry Brady resigned last week from his government job.

SOVIET SHIPS BARRED? The Soviets are still vulnerable to another economic twist of the screw if Jimmy Carter decides to use it. The Russians could be denied use of U.S. ports by their highly profitable merchant marine fleet. Their tankers and freighters are reaping hundreds of millions of dollars by carrying goods from this country to overseas buyers. Only 15 percent of the Red fleet's cargo is intended for consumption by the Soviet people. The rest nets the Kremlin's bank account hard cash or vitally needed goods from other nations.

Rep. John Murphy, D-N.Y., as head of the House Merchant Marine and Fisheries Committee, is urging the White House to bar all Soviet ships from U.S. ports. American longshoremen on the East and Gulf Coasts have already refused to load or unload Soviet vessels. Their fellow dockworkers on the West Coast have been more reluctant to boycott the Red ships.

Harrison Wins Top Award

Andover resident Rick Harrison, a full-time sports reporter for the Lowell Sun and a contributing sportswriter for the TOWNSMAN, was recently presented a second place award for feature writing by the New England Press Association at its annual banquet in Boston.

The article that won the award was entitled "Don Cherry: He Did It His Way."

It was written at the time of Cherry's departure as coach of the Boston Bruins, and centered around an interview with Cherry and several of the Bruins' players at the coach's North Andover home.

The award signifies the second best feature sports story in the entire New England region for all newspapers with circulations between 20,000 and 75,000.

Harrison, a graduate of Northeastern, has coached the Babe Ruth team in Andover for the past 14 years. He has also been very active in youth basketball in the town over the same period of time.

Among his other awards, Harrison has been named "Massachusetts Schoolboy Soccer Journalist of the Year" (1978), and several past articles have won awards from both the UPI and AP news services.

The local writer also contributes periodically to "Hockey Times" magazine and the Boston Bruins' program, and among his past assignments have been coverage of four World Series, 10 Stanley Cup finals, three USSR-NHL hockey series, and the 1977 National Golden Gloves Boxing Tournament in Honolulu, Hawaii.

Harrison's local youth basketball teams have won eight titles and close to 400 games, while the Babe Ruth team has won close to 250 games over the last 14 summers.

Scott Wallace hit a field goal late in the fourth period to boost St. Augustine A to a come-from-behind decision over tough-luck St. Augustine B.

The B-team led 6-2 at halftime and 9-4 after three quarters, but the winners averted an upset with three buckets and solid defense in the final stanza.

Wallace and Sarah Leary led the A-team's offense with four points apiece while Jeff Hurley added a first period basket.

Jeff Edwards of St. Augustine B emerged as game-high scorer with 5 points while Jeff Brodie and James Spinelli tossed in 2 points apiece.

Paul Demarco and David Sopp also played well for the B-team.

St. Robert A, 14-5

St. Robert A, sparked by the passing of Dan Fay and inside shooting of Tom Sheehan, outscored West Parish 8-2 in the second half to ensure its third win.

Sheehan led the victors with 8 points, six of them in the second half, while Matt Gibson chipped in 4 points and Mark Shwetz swished a third period basket.

Scott Clementi and David Orrick paced the West attack with 2 points apiece while Kimberly Brown hit a first period free throw and was a defensive stalwart.

Doug Bruk and David Carnes contributed fine floor games for West.

St. Robert B, 24-12

Trailing 5-4 after one period, St. Robert B outscored South Baptist 8-2 in the second period, and then coasted home to its third win in this high scoring shootout.

Jim Davis popped in 12 points for the winners, Chris Sullivan and Jeff Masse netted 4 apiece, while Billy Martin and Shawn Sullivan chipped in solo buckets.

Chris Eggert, an 8-year-old guard, led the SB attack with 7 points, Steve Flanders and Leo Fontane added one fieldgoal apiece, Dana Orlando swished a fourth period free throw, while Billy Batchelder and Jim Hendry also played well.

Christ B, 18-10

Christ B grabbed a 8-6 first quarter lead, increased it to 12-8 at halftime, and then outscored sister team Christ A 6-2 in the second half to seal its sixth straight win.

Dave Stark and John Knowles led the balanced B-team's offense with 6 points apiece, Bart Kalkstein notched 4 and Dave Lewis 2.

Intermediate Race Is Close

41 THE TOWNSMAN, FEBRUARY 7, 1980

By Rick Harrison

The top five teams remained only two games apart in the standings, as the well-balanced Andover Church Basketball League Intermediate "Gold" Division headed down the stretch with a real horserace for the title.

Defending champ St. Robert's B retained its slim first place lead last week, rebounding from its first defeat in two years to dump St. Robert's C, 24-13.

West Parish A gained sole possession of second place following its 39-26 conquest of St. Augustine D.

St. Robert's A created a three-way tie for third spot when it edged St. Augustine C, 24-23, and St. Augustine B grabbed a share of third after running roughshod over undermanned St. Augustine, A, 41-21.

St. Robert's B, 24-13

The defending champs, coming off a tense two-point victory and a four-point upset loss the previous two weeks, didn't get untracked in this game until the third quarter.

St. Robert's C, minus key player Jay DuHadway who injured his right wrist and may be lost for the rest of the season, took a 9-6 first period lead with John Veilleux' five points leading the way.

Dave DuHadway, who pocketed all six B-team points in the first quarter, helped a second stanza surge that tied the game 12-12 at halftime.

The victors broke it open with a 10-0 third quarter run, as Bobby Dziadosz and DuHadway led the attack by notching four points apiece.

DuHadway emerged as game-high scorer with 14 points, Dziadosz added 6, Joe Vecchi 2 and Billy Deppe 2.

Matt Chinchillo and Myles Greenberg also played well for the B-team, whose defense held the C-crew to one point in the second half.

John Veilleux pocketed 7 points for St. Robert's C. Geoff Dowell and Jim Veilleux added fieldgoals, while Dave Cox swished a pair of free throws.

Bobby Pothier, Tom Dolan and Scott White were other C-team stalwarts.

West Parish A, 39-26

Resurgent West Parish A raced to an 11-4 first period advantage, and it continued to pull away slowly thereafter with two point margins in each of the last three quarters.

Billy Lane once again led all marksmen with 16 points, including six the first period and six more during the final stanza.

Greg Hopwood also cracked double figures with 11 points, Andy Thompson swished 6, Eric Nickerson 4 and Lisa Marcella 2.

Scott McAllister and Chris Bartley led the answering fire for St. Augustine D with 8 points apiece, while Chris and Kevin Rourke scored 4 markers each in the final quarter.

Frank Odlum completed the St. Augustine D effort with a bucket.

St. Roberts A, 24-23

Mike Melia tossed in eight clutch last quarter points, while Sara Michelle Sapupo did a fine defensive job on high-scoring Joe Hart, as St. Robert's A erased a 23-15 fourth period deficit by outgunning St. Augustine C 9-0 to pull out the victory.

For St. Augustine C, which sorely missed the rebounding strength of Keith Driscoll (sick), the loss snapped a three-game win streak which included impressive victories of St. Robert's B and West A.

Ironically, Melia's eight points constituted his entire output for the game. Kevin Byrne was the top scorer for St.

Robert's A with 9 points, Chris Smith delivered 6, and Brian Molloy swished a key fourth period free throw.

Joe Hart collected all 12 of his points in the opening half for St. Augustine C, while Paul Sheedy chipped in 7, Tim Scanlon 2 and Ron Peck 2.

St. Augustine B, 41-21

St. Augustine B, winner in three of its last four games, took advantage of the absence of high-scoring Tom Lutz to coast past St. Augustine A.

The loss snapped a two-game A-team win skein.

Rich Sullivan and Tim Reilly combined for 29 points, pouring through 16 and 13 respectively, as the B-quintet raced to a 23-7 halftime lead and traded baskets in the final two periods.

Dan Beckerman popped in 7 points, Andy Zompa and Alan Sillars 2 each, and Kevin Walsh swished a free throw.

Sullivan also dominated both boards, while Mike Powers was a defensive stalwart.

Tom Hollenbeck, trying to fill the void left by Lutz' absence, scored 8 second-half points and played an excellent floor game.

John Morrow garnered 5 points, Tom O'Day 4, Jim Keating 2 and Scott Grant 2 for St. Augustine A.

Showdown Monday In 'Blue' Division

By Rick Harrison

West Parish B and Christ Church B, pointing towards their big showdown game next Monday night at South School, both won their seventh straight decisions last week by beating back the challenges of primary title contenders South and St. Robert's E in Andover Church Basketball League Intermediate "Blue" Division action.

West B had a much tougher time remaining undefeated (7-0), as it trimmed South and St. Robert's E in Andover Church Basketball League Intermediate "Blue" Division action.

West B had a much tougher time remaining undefeated (7-0), as it trimmed South (5-2) by a 32-26 margin in a fast-paced game that featured excellent hustle by both clubs.

Christ B (7-0) threw a defensive blanket around St. Robert's E (5-2), snapping that club's five-game win streak with a convincing 28-7 triumph.

In other Blue Division games, Christ Church A edged Ballardvale United B, 12-7, St. Augustine F handled West Parish C, 23-6, St. Roberts D topped Ballardvale United A, 16-6, Baptist nudged St. Augustine E, 16-10.

West Parish B, 32-26

South, whose only previous loss was a 25-21 decision to Christ B, never led but never let the game get out of hand.

Divisional scoring leader Tim Boudreau scored eight first quarter points, while Robbie Barnard added five, as West Bolted to a 15-8 lead.

Boudreau chipped in fieldgoals, as West stretched its advantage to 24-13 by half-time.

South made a run in the third stanza, Scott Wilkins and Scott Lattanzio powering the rally. West B was limited to a Rich Dunn fieldgoal and saw its lead sliced to 26-19.

South trimmed the difference to four points at one juncture in the final period, but key buckets from Tony Andon, Austin Henderson and Boudreau iced the victory for West B.

Tim Boudreau (113 points) finished with a game-high 15 points, Robbie Barnard added 7, Austin Henderson and Rich Dunn 4 apiece, and Tony Andon 2.

Dave Desmarais also played well for the winners.

The balanced South attack featured Scott Wilkins with 8 points, Phil Stocking 6, Scott Lattanzio 4, John Todd 3, Jeff Penner 2, Rob Carpenter 2, and Rob Hendry one free throw.

Christ B, 28-7

C-C, leading 10-3 at halftime, applied full-court pressure in the third period and escaped on a 10-0 run to clinch the victory.

St. Robert's E did not help itself with its shooting, hitting only 1-of-10 free throws and going ice-cold from the floor as well.

Glen Livermore enjoyed another fine all-around game for the tall Christ B crew, pumping in 12 points and controlling the backboards.

Steve Blair chipped in 8 points, Roger Fisk 4, Billy Earnshaw 2 and Gretchen Suchodolski 2.

Allan Gable, Nancy Rogers, Andy Cummings, and Laurie Ahouse were other C-C notables.

Larry Middleton paced St. Robert's E with 4 last quarter points. Chris Sapuppo delivered an opening period basket, and Gerry Nassif a second quarter charity toss.

Mike French, Chris Concemi and Steve Veilleux also played well for St. Robert's E.

Christ A, 12-7

Andy Grant, Chris Scott and Andy Frost

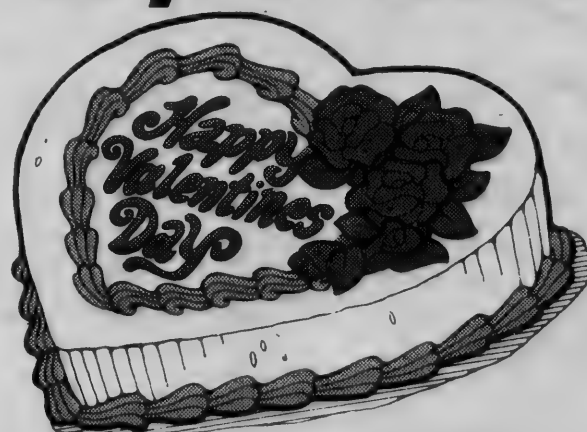

guided a much smaller Christ A team to an 8-0 first period lead, and the game then settled into a tight defensive struggle both ways as C-C dumped Ballardvale B.

BU managed only a solitary free throw by Tom Darling over the first three quarters, then saw a last period rally fall short.

Grant led the victors' offense with 6

St. Augustine F parlayed a balanced eight-player attack and a tough defense to sink West Parish C, racing to a commanding 19-0 halftime lead.

Matt Geiger fired through all six of his points in the second quarter, while Jeff Smith contributed his five in the opening stanza.

Tossing through other fieldgoals were Chris Boyle, Jeff Holmes, Mike Lane, Paul Davies, Drew Dunn and Mark Geiger.

Watson On TV Friday

Andover native Sidney J. (Sid) Watson, Bowdoin College's veteran hockey coach, will be interviewed live between periods of the Boston University vs. Providence College hockey telecast from the Walter Brown Arena in Boston Friday night, Feb. 8.

The game, scheduled to start at 8 p.m., will be telecast by Station WSBK-TV, Channel 38 in Boston, and Watson will be interviewed by color commentator John Pierson between the first and second periods. The play-by-play account of the game, a key ECAC Division I struggle, will be handled by veteran hockey announcer Fred Cusick.

Channel 38 is available to subscribers to most cable television systems in Maine.

Watson's Bowdoin team, a perennial Division II power, got off to another fine start this season, winning 11 of its first 16 games and racking up a 9-2-1 record in Division II competition, including the championship of the first annual Teapot Tournament at the Boston Garden.

One of the nation's leading hockey coaches, Watson has had only four losing seasons in 20 years and his teams have won more games than those of any other currently active small college coach in New England. In seven of the last 11 seasons the Polar Bears have been the No. 1 small college squad in the East. Under his guidance, Bowdoin has won four ECAC Division II championships and he has been voted National College Divisional Coach of the Year on three different occasions.

Now in his 21st year at Bowdoin, Watson has a current overall record of 280 wins, 172 losses and 9 ties for a winning percentage of .617. His record against Division II teams is even more impressive. From the start of the 1963-64 season until now, the Polar Bears have won 199 Division II contests, lost 66 and tied 6 for a .745 winning percentage.

On Dean's List

Renee D. Sanft and Marshall B. Sanft, of 14 Kirkland Drive, Andover have both been named to the dean's list for the first semester at Emerson College, Boston.

Squirt "A" Team

Non-League Game

Andover 3, Stoneham 3

The Squirt A's played Stoneham even and the game was tied as 3-3 with only a few minutes left in the third period, when Stoneham caught fire and put in three quick unanswered goals.

Stoneham put on all the pressure in the opening few minutes and put in the game's first goal. Then Pat Breen made a good move to start a breakout of the Andover zone followed by some strong work behind the net by Brent Raftery, who got the puck to Kyle McCabe for a wrist shot and Andover's first goal. Stoneham then came back to score two more goals. But before the first period ended Andover had evened the score again. The line of Mark Neaves, Bob Stoltz and Chris Sapuppo combined to hold the puck deep in the offensive zone and keep the Stoneham defense disorganized, and finally Sapuppo scored on a pass from Stoltz. And a few minutes later, McCabe scored again with assists to Breen and Raftery.

Neither team could break the deadlock through the second period, although there were several good chances created by the new line of converted defensemen Jamie O'Brien and Matt Young joining regular winger, Mike Nelligan. Steve Donovan moving from his usual center position to pair with Peter Trede on several shifts at defense, made some strong rushes on net, and working with Mark Neaves and Bob Stoltz almost put Andover ahead a couple of times. With lineup shifts being worked out, Mark Berberian continues to anchor Andover defense pairs, and with partners Dana Forbes and Tom Tormey broke up several scoring chances. Chris Hansberry and Jim Berberian shared goal tending duties and each made several key saves.

Pee Wee "B"

Andover 7, Saugus 1

Andover's Pee Wee B hockey team passed the halfway mark in the season last week while playing three games before falling to North Reading on Saturday, 5-1. Through Saturday, Feb. 2, the B's have played in 35 contests, winning 12, losing 19, and tying 4. Their play has improved steadily as the season has progressed. The B's are now one of the better teams in the Danvers Twin Rinks League, and are holding their own in the Wilmington Youth Ice Arena League. Coaches Bill Donovan and Max McNeil deserve a lot of credit for skills they have brought out in the boys.

On Monday night, the Pee Wee's won their third game in a row, besting Saugus 7-1. Billy Bruno, with two goals, and David Young, with one goal and two assists, led the scoring parade for Andover. This game was noteworthy because defensemen Matt Shine, Sandy MacNeish and Brian Gibson, each of whom has played well all year, each scored while taking shifts at wing. Timmy Donovan also had a goal and an assist in the victory, while Larry Prestia picked up two assists and Chris Madden and Tommy Herling added one apiece. Goalie Kenny Young and defenseman John Gangi also played well in the game.

Andover 4, Wilmington 1

Andover's win streak reached four the next night as the B's beat Wilmington, 4-1. Larry Prestia led the way with two goals, one unassisted and the other on a Billy Bruno pass. David Young had a goal off Tommy Herling set up and an assist in the game. Andover's fourth goal was scored by Timmy Donovan. Assists on his goal went to David Young and Shannon McCabe. The Wilmington victory saw excellent efforts by forwards Ronnie Forbes, Paul Fuchs, Mark Paskowsky, Jeff McNeil and Chris Madden, and defensemen Brian Gibson, Sandy MacNeish and Matt Shine, all of whom helped goalies Kenny Young and David Barry hold Wilmington to only one goal.

North Reading 5, Andover 1

The win streak ended on Saturday as a strong North Reading team defeated the B's 5-1. Andover drew first blood, as Billy Bruno converted on a pretty set-up by Larry Prestia and Chris Madden. The remainder of the game was downhill for Andover, despite good efforts turned in the David Young, Shannon McCabe and Mark Paskowsky line. The B's were short handed in the game as several key players missed the game due to illness. Double shifts by defensemen Matt Shine, Sandy MacNeish, Brian Gibson and Tommy Herling and forwards Ronnie Forbes and Paul Fuchs could not take up the slack, despite the good efforts of goalies David Barry and Kenny Young. The B's expect to begin another win streak this weekend with games in Wilmington and Haverhill.

League Leaders Narrowly Escape

By Rick Harrison

Villanova and Dartmouth, the teams with the top two records in the Andover Youth Basketball League Intermediate Division, both had narrow escapes in action last week at the West Junior High.

Undefeated Villanova withstood a strong effort by Holy Cross enroute to a 27-25 victory, while Dartmouth struggled mightily before subduing North Carolina State, 30-27.

In the third game at South School, Harvard squared its overall record by slipping past an improving Boston College quintet, 39-32.

Harvard, 39-32

Divisional scoring leader Tim Perry surpassed the 30-point plateau for the second straight week, pouring through 31 to spark Harvard to its fourth victory in eight games.

Boston College put up its strongest performance of the season, trailing only 19-14 at halftime and 19-14 at halftime and 24-18 after three quarters.

The game was tied 6-6 after one period, with Perry notching four points to power the Crimson, and BC countering with single buckets by Joe Hart, John Tateosian and Mike Burke.

Perry tossed in nine second quarter points as Harvard opened a little breathing room, and he followed with five markers in the third period and 13 more in the fourth.

Tom Novelline contributed 6 points and Dave Maguire 2 in support of Perry's 31.

Rich Bourdelais and Steve Colitz also played well for the Crimson.

All six players on the Boston College squad scored, as the Eagles responded to the leadership of assistant coach Jim Lowe.

Joe Hart flipped in 12 points, Charlie Lowe 6, Lydia Wise 4, John Tateosian 4, Mike Burke 4 and Bob Manning 2.

Wise and Manning also rebounded well, Lowe did some fine playmaking, Tateosian engineered the fast break, and Burke starred on defense.

Villanova, 27-25

Holy Cross gave Villanova as much as could handle, although Wildcats' ace Tom Lutz was sub-par and played the game with a fever.

Lutz still managed to share game-high scoring honors with 14 points, including the game-winning basket in the closing minutes.

Villanova led 13-8, 19-13 and 23-17 at the first three checkpoints, but Chris Comparato led a last quarter comeback that fell just short for the Crusaders.

John Terrion chipped in 12 points for the winners, 10 of them in the first half, and Jon Yezerski swished a first period free throw.

Paul Valcourt helped Lutz off the boards, and Yezerski also managed several key steals and assists.

Comparato netted 14 points for Holy Cross, six in the opening period and five in the final stanza to pace the rally.

Kevin Bardsley and Lisa Marcella delivered 4 points apiece, Joe Milora 2 and Rich Napolitano a single free throw.

Steve Gemmell had a number of rebounds and steals, while Russ Lamontagne and David Doyle played steady all-around games.

Dartmouth, 30-27

Dartmouth raced to a quick 8-0 lead midway through the first quarter, but a combination of early foul problems and a fine comeback by North Carolina State made it close from the second period to the final horn.

Guards Mark Doherty and Dan Sheehan produced the 8-0 bulge with four pretty driving lay-ups, but Doherty also picked up four fast fouls and spent better than half the game on the bench.

The Wolfpack took advantage of Doherty's absence, turning to Mark Patti who made several excellent driving hoops himself in the second period.

Patti contributed seven points, Paul Oshan a bucket, Greg Hopwood two free throws and Chris Dorsey two charities in the second quarter, as N.C. State closed the gap to 20-17 by halftime.

Dan Sheehan tossed in eight second period points for Dartmouth.

Rob DiTroia and Patti led a third quarter surge that put the Wolfpack ahead by one point briefly, but by the end of the seesaw stanza Dartmouth was clinging to a 26-25 lead.

N.C. State missed numerous lay-ups in the final period, managing only two free throws by Hopwood and Oshan.

Sheehan, who went 4-for-4 from the free throw line, countered with a key baseline drive and a pair of charities to win it for Dartmouth.

Dartmouth held a healthy 13-9 edge in fieldgoals, but N.C. State stayed close with a 9-4 edge at the free throw line.

Dan Sheehan led all marksmen with 18 points, Mark Doherty chipped in 10 despite his limited playing time (he didn't foul out), and Tim Meehl had a big basket.

Joe Flosman rebounded well down the stretch while Larry Aiello, Robbie Pauline, Eric Friedenson and Stu Leinson all played solid games.

Mark Patti netted 11 points, Greg Hopwood 5, Paul Oshan 5, Rob DiTroia 4 and Chris Dorsey 2 for the Wolfpack.

Undefeated Team Even Stronger

By Tricia Gannon

The Andover West Junior High ninth grade boys basketball team is still undefeated as they move on to their ninth game. Coach George Sullivan is impressed by the team's ability to work together and also commented on their aggressiveness in games as a helpful factor.

The fifth game, Jan. 18, was against Chelmsford-Parker. At the half WJHS was ahead 34-28 and finished with a score of 73-60. Jeff Canovitch and E. J. Perry had 18 points while Sean McGranaghan followed with 12.

Next, the team played a scrimmage against Littleton. With Todd Lockwood, E. J. Perry and Tom Kannam playing an outstanding game, West won.

They next played Chelmsford-McCarthy and won by a score of 61-41. At the end of each quarter West held the lead and Sean McGranaghan and Todd Lockwood proved to be the high scorers with 19 and 17 points respectively.

Against Dracut, Tom Kannam scoring 12 po-ints, Sean McGranaghan scoring 10 and Matt Wells scoring 9 points, the team won by a score of 62-24.

Their most recent game was played last Friday against Wilmington. They were ahead by 25 points at the half and continued their large lead to finish with a score of 64-29. E. J. Perry was the high scorer with 19 points followed by Dick Kelly with 10 points.

Other team members include Ricky Desmarais, Chris McGinley, Mike Pantaleo, Rob Slayton and Jim Terrion.

The team's top scorer to date has been E. J. Perry with 105 points while Sean McGranaghan follows with 98. Perry also has the most field goals, 46. McGranaghan again follows E.J. with 43.

The team plays Methuen tomorrow, Feb. 8, and has three games after that: Lawrence, Feb. 15; Central Catholic, Feb. 21; and East Jr. High, Feb. 25.

Lions 18, Tigers 8

In the eighth game of the year the much improved Lions reversed an early season loss to the Tigers by beating them 18-8. In the first half the Lions were led by the snoring of Joshua Yezerski and the defense of Jon Daly and Chris Nelson to take a 15-6 lead. The big gun for the Tigers with 4 points in the first half was Geoff Bolan with help on defense from Barry Connors. Defense excellence took over for the second half with Jim Halice playing very smartly for the Lions and Jeremy Kaplan showing the way for the Tigers as the Lions held on for a ten point victory.

The second half featured a rebounding battle between Kurt Burzlaff of the Cougars and Patrick Burns of the Bears. Jim Flowers and Nicky Coon showed some excellent floor play for the Cougars. Two players who really hustled for the Bears were John Dorsey and Sean Melia.

Panthers 34, Leopards 33

In one of the most exciting games of the year in the Junior Division the good shooting Panthers led by David Vickers and Steven Redgate beat the Leopards by a 34 to 33 score. With John Perry throwing in 17 points in the first Half, the Leopards ran off to a 21 to 12 lead after two quarters. Jack Dalton and Robert Stoltz of the Panthers played great defense in the second half as the score got closer as the end of the game got nearer. The Panthers found themselves with 15 seconds left on the clock; behind by one point and the ball out of bounds at half court. With two quick passes David Vickers had a clear shot from 12 feet away and it swished through the net one second before the horn blew to end the game.

Girl's Hoop Results

At the halfway point in the Department of Community Services Girl's Basketball League there still remains one undefeated team, the Blazers. St. Marys of Lawrence continued its incredible play last Saturday as it outscored the Sanborn Supersonics 23-10 to chalk up their third win. Despite the high scoring effort of Carolyn Tiberi with four points, the Supersonics just couldn't contain Ann Hidalgo, Kara Difrancia, Ramona Vera, and Linda Boucher who shared the high scoring honors with four points each.

In the opening game of the day, the Doherty Dribblers won their second game of the year by defeating the Shawsheen Red Hots 16-3. The even-balanced attack of the Dribblers proved to be the determining factor as four players assisted in their team's scoring effort. Mary Ellen Lee proved to be high scorer of the day with 6 points, Kristin Donahue and Dana Leith had 4 points each and Jennifer Surrette added 2 more. Shelly Rocker and Elizabeth Cox were the lone scorers for the Red Hots.

The final game of the day was one for the defensive minded as the Doherty Dunker nipped the Bancroft Bullets 3-2.

What the game lacked in scoring it made up for in excitement as both players and spectators alike knew that each point scored was of great importance. This proved to be the case as Nancy Lee's one point turned out to be the winning tally. Margaret Easton scored the Bullets' two points while Jennifer Ippolito also had two for the Dunkers.

Floor Hockey Tournament

The Department of Community Services will sponsor its Fourth Annual Grades 4, 5 and 6 Floor Hockey Tournament during the upcoming February school vacation. The single elimination tournament will be open to all Andover students representing schools, organizations, or neighborhoods. Competition will take place at the West Junior High School Gymnasium on Monday, Feb. 18 and Thursday, Feb. 19, with the finals being played on Sat., Feb. 23. Teams are allowed a minimum of eight and a maximum of 12 players per roster and there is a registration fee.

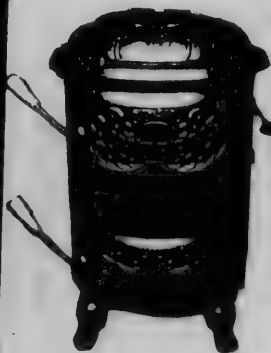

If this year's action is as exciting as last year's, all spectators and players alike are in for a real treat. In the finals of last year's tourney, the West Elementary Cougars upset the defending champion South School Superstars 3-1 to capture the tournament title.

Individuals wanting to organize or play on one of the teams in this year's Floor Hockey Tournament can pick up registration and information forms at all Andover elementary schools and at the DCS office located at the Stowe School on Barlet Street.

The Department is also looking for volunteers interested in being referees and scorekeepers for the games. All those intrested in helping out in either of these roles are asked to call the DCS office.

Real Estate

REALTOR

THE "DREAM HOUSE" SYNDROME

There are two species of househunter — the pragmatist and the idealist. Beware of going to extremes at either end of the financial spectrum.

You can be too practical. For instance, assuming that a home in need of repair can be fixed at an overall price savings and find out that the final cost greatly exceeds the estimate. . . . Buying a home in a neighborhood whose value is going downhill because "it's a bargain." . . . Buying a home with fewer rooms than you really need. You may end up with an unsuitable, uncomfortable home with a lower resale potential.

On the other hand, the idealist should beware of the all-too-frequent "dream house" syndrome. Sure, it's tempting to set out in quest of the absolutely perfect home, but it's better to balance your dreams with your pocketbook. Even if you can define the perfect home (which is doubtful), you probably couldn't afford it. Be prepared to compromise.

Clark Chrysler-Plymouth — For New Horizons PLUS!

Is there a new car on your horizon — maybe it's the exciting new Plymouth Horizon, featured at Clark Chrysler-Plymouth, 273 South Union Street, Lawrence. It's the new small car that is taking the country by storm!

Horizon TC3 offers a smooth look, gliding its way to good fuel economy, featuring one of the most efficient aerodynamic designs of any car built in America. It has front-wheel drive, a first for American sports coupes, provides road-gripping traction in the best and worst road conditions, has rack and pinion steering and an independent front suspension with a tight turning radius for nimble maneuvering. Yes, Horizon TC3 gives you a sports car feel, a host of standard features, plus all-important fuel economy.

Horizon's Four-Door sedan is an economical yet roomy car. Don't be fooled by its small car look — it can handle four people in comfort. Fold down the rear seat and you enlarge the luggage area from roomy to incredibly roomy. All this with such standard equipment as AM radio, 3-spoke steering wheel, tinted glass, rear electric defroster, electric clock and a trip odometer. And the list of standard Safety Features is equally as long!

If you're looking for a somewhat larger vehicle, see Chrysler Cordoba, completely restyled for the 80's. It is lighter by about 350 lbs. Wheelbase has been cut slightly, but there is more room inside than ever. There's a new grille pattern and tail lamps have been redesigned, but Cordoba retains its longhood, short deck look. You'll like what they've done to Cordoba!

Clark Chrysler-Plymouth has a full inventory of all the new Plymouth and Chrysler models: LeBaron, New Yorker, Newport, Gran Fury, wagons, coupes, sports cars, hatchbacks, pickups, whatever your transportation needs. Also a good selection of fine pre-owned vehicles.

Open daily 9 to 9, Saturdays 9 to 5. Tel. 688-6053. Watch for their big Washington's Birthday Open House!

Marshall Darling, Vice-President of Darling Assoc. Real Estate of Andover has just been elected Regional Vice-President of the All Points Relocation Service, the world's only international transferee assistance corporation.

All Points is a multi-service relocation network created for the sole purpose of helping families move anywhere in the world as easily as possible.

Moving is not one of life's most enjoyable experiences. All costs for the service are absorbed by the membership and there are no extra charges to the transferring family. This "one stop service" has been needed for years said Mr. Darling, and the transferees are simplifying their moves with it every day.

Their Course Was Already Charted

Some 25 Andover High pupils began a new course on Southeast Asia last week — without knowing whether they'd get any credit for it.

But their efforts to establish the course, fund it and find a teacher were rewarded Tuesday night, when they got unanimous School Committee approval.

Sally Breckinridge of the Student Advisory Council, said a group of students had felt the need to broaden their knowledge of world cultures, but there was no meaningful study of Southeast Asia in the Andover High curriculum.

"Considering the present world situation," said their proposal, "these students feel it is imperative to expand their knowledge beyond the provincial limitations set by our school system. Particularly, there is a need for a course discussing Western Society's involvement in Indochina during the post-Colonial period."

Sally said the students had discovered there were funds for the necessary course materials in the present social studies budget, and that the salary for a teacher was available because of a current teacher vacancy in the industrial arts department.

She said they had also found a teacher — Craig Simpson.

Simpson thanked the committee after it gave its go-ahead, and then noted that the students had already been coming for a week.

"But we haven't been paying you,"

School Chairman Elaine Viehmann said.

That didn't matter, Simpson replied; what did was that the students could now have books for the course.

Simpson said yesterday that the "super part" of getting "Southeast Asia: A World View" off the ground was that "I had nothing to do about it."

He said it was entirely the students' project: a group of kids got together and found out what had to be done to get a course. They knew Simpson had been an Asian studies major in college and that he was on the payroll only four-fifths time, so they found out when he had a free period and went through the proper channels to schedule the course for that time slot.

"They were very well organized and very persistent," Simpson said.

Though they felt "pretty confident" that the course would be approved, Simpson said some students had to go ahead and fill up the time with another course, because they had to have the credits to graduate.

This is Simpson's first full year as a teacher here; last year he was a substitute.

The course, he said, is basically a look at that part of the world since about 1935.
